SCHOOL NOTES

About thirty teachers appeared at the Medina high school building Saturday morning and signified their intention of taking work in the County Normal in the classes to be offered each Saturday morning. This number will doubtless be considerably augmented when the classes meet for actual work on Saturday, November 21, at 9 o'clock. Courses will begin in the "History of Education," by Supt. W. S. Edmund; in School Methods, by Prof. Stear, director of the County Normal, and by County Supt. C. E. Jenks in English. These courses will enable county teachers to work off the six weeks of Normal training required by the new law after January 1, and will afford an opportunity for those teachers who have already fulfilled their requirements to still further improve themselves and obtain advanced standing should they enter any of the State Normal Schools.

Prof. Galehouse put in a busy day at Homerville, Nov. 17, giving instruction in corn judging. In the contest for the best ten ears, Dewey Leininger again captured first prize; Ellis Jeffrey, second; Harold White, third and Edward Walters, fourth.

The box social and spelling bee held at District No. 2, Harrisville, was a well attended one. The proceeds, $12.95, will be used to purchase equipment to make this a first grade rural school.

The Blake school at River Styx is planning a start in manual training. An oyster supper will be held Friday night, Nov. 27, to raise money to help purchase equipment.

Thursday, Nov. 19, was the day set aside by County Supt. C. E. Jenks for collections to be taken for the aid of 7,000,000 suffering Belgians. The amount of these collections will be announced at the LeRoy meeting on Saturday and published next week.

The Medina high school football team will wind up its season with a game against Wooster high at Wooster, Friday, Nov. 20. Wooster won the first game, 19 to 13, and this promises to be a hard fought contest.

Prof. Ellis F. Warner, State High School Inspector of Bellevue, Ohio, is looking over the high school buildings of Medina county this week. He reports that in the main, a very high grade of work is maintained in our high schools.

Mrs. Fenn's Death

Mrs. Carrie Prentiss Fenn was born in Medina, Ohio, April 13, 1846, and passed away Thursday, Nov. 12, 1914, in New DeCatur, Ala.

She was the daughter of Calvin B. and Maria Prentiss. Her marriage to Mr. E. J. Fenn took place April 13, 1865. To them were born three children, one of which lived to be almost two years old, and the other two died in early infancy. She united with the Episcopal church of Medina under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Davis. In all her severe afflictions she never lost faith in her religious beliefs, notwithstanding her inability to join in any public religious or other meetings on account of the great loss of the sense of hearing.

Since 1878 Mr. and Mrs. Fenn have had their home in New DeCatur, Ala. Mrs. Fenn not being of vigorous constitution, has been a great sufferer for many years. Her last sickness was only a weeks duration. She had endeared herself to a large circle of friends by her kind, affable manners, and everything that could be done in her late illness to alleviate her pain and suffering was done.

A short service was held at her home before bringing her body to be laid at rest in Medina, where she had always desired it should lie.

The widower, Mrs. E. J. Fenn, who accompanied the remains of Mrs. Fenn from Alabama to Medina, will be remembered by the older residents of the community as a former merchant in Medina, where he successfully conducted a dry goods store in the Barnard Block, corner of North Court and West Liberty streets, many years ago. Since removing south, Mr. Fenn has been engaged in the real estate business. It was only a few weeks ago that Mr. and Mrs. Fenn considered seriously returning to Medina to spend their remaining days. But the latter's illness was a barrier to the closing up by Mr. Fenn of his real estate business.

There was a service held for the deceased at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fenton on West Liberty
